DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
November 5, 2026

May I have your attention for the announcements please…

Today at 6:30 P.M., the SJA and CHS Black Box Company will present a special preview performance of Murder on the Orient Express in the Academy Arts Center Black Box. Student tickets are only $5.00 for this performance and are available at the door. Faculty and staff members are admitted free of charge. The regular performances are Friday, November 6 and Saturday, November 7 at 6:30 P.M. and Sunday at 2:00 P.M. Tickets are available through SJA School Cash Online and at the door. Links for tickets have also been provided in your email.

The African American Affinity group is hosting Black Sitcom Night on November 10th at 6pm the Student Center! Be there for strength in brotherhood, fun games, trivia, and free food. All are welcome. .

After school in The Hearth! Earn 1 service hour while creating Thanksgiving placemats for St. Vincent de Paul's Thanksgiving Dinner. All supplies are provided, and your artwork will help bring joy to others during this holiday season. Open to 8th-10th graders. Come make an impact.

Hey quiz bowlers! Come to our first official informational meeting today in room 142 right after school. Come learn new things and be surprised by what you know!

Attention freshman football players and fall sport athletes who have recently completed their seasons: Track & Field tryouts will be held next Monday and Tuesday from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the Pete Boudreaux Track Facility. These tryouts are intended for student-athletes who were unable to attend the initial open tryout held in September. For additional information, please contact the Track & Field coaching staff.

Good morning, Bear Fans! Congratulations to our freshman soccer team, who beat East Ascension 6-0 last night, and to varsity wrestling, who dominated Live Oak! There's no school tomorrow, but the Bears are busy. Varsity cross country runs in the LHSAA Division I Region 2 meet at Highland Road Park at 10:15 in the morning. Get out there and cheer them on to state! Then tomorrow night, Varsity Football hosts Legacy from Texas at 7:00 at Memorial Stadium. Fill the student section and make it loud. On Saturday, varsity wrestling competes at the Warrior Open at St. Michael's starting at 8:00. Be on the line. Go Bears!

Thank you for your attention; that is all.
