

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
December 8, 2023

May I have your attention for the announcements please...

After school snacks will not be available today.

The National Honor Society Toys for Tots drive continues through December 12. There is still plenty of time to bring a new, unwrapped toy to school. Please help fill the boxes in front of the Attendance Office. Let's show our community what Bear Nation is all about!

The Drama Club is proud to present Talent Night this weekend. There are performances at 6:00 tonight and tomorrow night. Tickets may be purchased on SJA's website using their School Cash Online page.

Bear Nation! Tonight is the big night! The football team travels to New Orleans to face the Acadiana Rams in the State Championship. It's all on the line, and we need to have a big crowd to show up at The Dome. Get ready to show how proud you are to be a Catholic High Bear. The theme is Orange Out. Go Bears!

Thank you for your attention; that is all.
